

Chapter 12: The Second War for Independence and the Upsurge of Nationalism

Key Concept 1: America sought dominance over the North American continent.

Key Concept 2: Federal attempts to assert authority over the states brought resistance.

Key Concept 3: America comes together as a nation.

Key Concept 4: The Supreme Court asserts federal power over state laws.

Washington Burned and New Orleans Defended

Know: Francis Scott Key, Andrew Jackson, Battle of New Orleans

The Treaty of Ghent

Know: Treaty of Ghent, John Quincy Adams, Henry Clay

Federalist Grievances and the Hartford Convention

Know: Blue Light Federalists, Hartford Convention

“The American System”

Know: Washington Irving, James Fennimore Cooper, Stephen Decatur, Tariff of 1816, Henry Clay, The American System, Erie Canal

The So-Called Era of Good Feelings

Know: James Monroe, Virginia Dynasty, Era of Good Feelings

The Panic of 1819 and the Curse of Hard Times

Know: Wildcat Banks, Panic of 1819

Growing Pains of the West

Slavery and the Sectional Balance

Know: Tallmadge Amendment, Peculiar Institution

The Uneasy Missouri Compromise

Know: Henry Clay, Missouri Compromise, “Fireball in the Night”

Judicial Dikes Against Democratic Excesses

Know: Fletcher v. Peck, Dartmouth College v. Woodward, Daniel Webster

Sharing Oregon and Acquiring Florida

Know: John Quincy Adams, Treaty of 1818, Andrew Jackson, Adams-Onís Treaty of 1819

Monroe and His Doctrine

Know: John Quincy Adams, Monroe Doctrine