

Chapter 24: Industry Comes of Age

Key Concept 1: New markets were opened up for America following the Civil War.

Key Concept 2: Innovations maximize the exploitation of resources and movement of people.

Key Concept 3: Business leaders consolidate power and defended their resulting status.

Key Concept 4: Workers organized unions and confronted corporate power.

The Iron Colt Becomes an Iron Horse

Know: Land grants

Wrongdoing in the Railroading

Know: Jay Gould, Stock Watering, Pools

Government Bridles the Iron Horse

Know: Wabash, Interstate Commerce Commission

Miracles of Mechanization

Know: Mesabi Range, Alexander Graham Bell, Thomas Edison

The Trust Titan Emerges

Know: Andrew Carnegie, John D. Rockefeller, J.P. Morgan, Vertical Integration, Horizontal Integration, Trust, Interlocking Directorate

The Supremacy of Steel

Know: Heavy Industry, Capital Goods, Consumer Goods, Bessemer Process

Carnegie and Other Sultans of Steel and Rockefeller Grows an American Beauty Rose

Know: Andrew Carnegie, J.P. Morgan

The Gospel of Wealth

Know: Social Darwinism

Government Tackles the Trust Evil

Know: Sherman Anti-Trust Act

In Unions There is Strength

Know: Scabs, Lock-out, Yellow-dog Contract, Black List, Company Town

Labor Limp Along

Know: National Labor Union, Knights of Labor

Unhorsing the Knights of Labor

Know: Haymarket Square

The AF of L to the Fore

Know: American Federation of Labor, Samuel Gompers, Closed Shop

Makers of America: The Knights of Labor

Know: Mother Jones, Terence Powderly