

Chapter 5: Colonial Society on the Eve of Revolution

Key Concept 1: Growth of Atlantic economy created a wide exchange of New World and European goods.

Key Concept 2: Resistance to imperial control in the British colonies through various means.

Key Concept 3: New ideas led to debates about religion and governance.

Key Concept 4: The British colonies begin to take on their own culture.

Conquest by the Cradle

Know: Thirteen Original Colonies

A Mingling of Races

Know: Pennsylvania Dutch, Scots-Irish, Paxton Boys, Regulator Movement

The Structure of Colonial Society

Know: Social Mobility

Makers of America: The Scots-Irish

Know: The Session

Workaday America

Know: Triangular Trade, Naval Stores, Molasses Act

Horsepower and Sailpower

Know: Taverns

Dominant Denominations

Know: Established Church, Anglicans, Congregationalists, Presbyterians

The Great Awakening

Know: Jonathan Edwards, George Whitefield, Old Lights, New Lights, Baptists

Schools and Colleges

Know: Latin and Greek

A Provincial Culture

Know: John Trumbull, Charles Wilson Peale, Benjamin West, John Singleton Copely, Benjamin Franklin

Pioneer Presses

Know: John Peter Zenger

The Great Game of Politics

Know: Royal Colonies, Proprietary Colonies, Self-governing Colonies, Colonial Assemblies, Power of the Purse, Town Meetings, Property Qualifications